A Promise Made is a Promise Kept. A Commitment to Hope.

Promise Day is a tribute to the life and legacy of Czar, a wise and gentle Great Pyrenees whose battle with cancer inspired a movement. On December 20, 2013, Czar transitioned to his next chapter, leaving behind a promise to help families facing a cancer diagnosis in their beloved pets.

Since 2018, Czar's Promise has been dedicated to local families who are in need of an understanding ear, conversation, referrals to local resources, and financial support for their pet facing a cancer diagnosis, while also advancing research into cancers affecting both pets and people.

Promise Day honors Czar's legacy as well as the cancer fighting hero pets we serve, while inviting our community to join us in this mission.

A Bold Step Forward in Research

Czar's Promise is proud to announce a five-year, $125,000 commitment to fund groundbreaking pediatric and canine comparative oncology research at the UW School of Veterinary Medicine and American Family Children's Hospital.
